Dear Clients,

We are pleased to inform you that our Prague office will be further strengthened by the addition of experienced lawyer and recognised criminal law expert Jan Vučka, who will be responsible for providing legal services in the field of criminal law, including criminal liability of legal persons and criminal compliance.

Our legal support in the area of criminal law primarily includes:

- Defence of natural persons and corporations, including complex cases of economic and tax crime, support and representation of companies in investigations by public authorities
- Prevention of risks of criminal liability of legal entities and management, preparation and implementation of compliance programmes (preventive consulting)
- Review and preparation of the client's internal regulations and processes (including protection of property interests), management and employee training
- Assessment of the criminal law aspects of the litigation agenda, supporting the client in disputes
- Claims for damages in criminal proceedings and preparation of criminal complaints
- Support for companies in internal investigations
- Verification of criminal risks in complex transactions and due diligence

We will be happy to provide you with more information and to discuss how we can help you in specific cases.
